Southern Illinois University Carbondale
COMMUNITY LISTENER’S PERMIT PROGRAM
The CLPP opens the classrooms of SIU Carbondale to the community. It is a special non-credit program that gives one an opportunity to participate in numerous SIU credit courses.

Instructor’s Approval Form
The 2016—2017 permits do not include access to Morris Library or university computers/technologies.

$50 Course Fee (cash/check only)

Participant’s Name: __________________________________________________________

Address: __________________________________________________________________

(Street/PO Box)

__________________________________________________________________________

(City) (State) (ZIP)

Telephone: ___________________ E-mail________________________________________

Class Number: ___________________ Section: _________________________________

Class Name: _______________________________________________________________

Class Day & Times: _________________________________________________________

To be completed by instructor:

Semester: __________ Year: __________

Instructor’s Name: _________________________________________________________

Instructor’s Signature: _____________________________________________________

Please return this form with payment for each class to:

SIU Continuing Education and Professional Development
NW Annex A, Room 134
850 Lincoln Drive
Carbondale, IL 62901