SERVICEMEMBERS OPPORTUNITY COLLEGES (SOC)

The Department of Workforce Education and Development, College of Education and Human Services; the Department of Technology, College of Engineering; and the College of Applied Sciences and Arts of Southern Illinois University Carbondale have been designated institutional members of Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC), a consortium of approximately 1,900 colleges and universities providing voluntary post-secondary education to members of the military throughout the world. Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges recognize the unique nature of the military lifestyle and have committed themselves to easing the transfer of relevant course credits, providing flexible academic residency requirements, and crediting learning from appropriate military training and experience. SOC has been developed jointly by educational representatives of each of the armed services, the Office of the Secretary of Defense and a consortium of fifteen leading national higher education associations, it is co-sponsored by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU; www.aascu.org/) and the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC; www.aacc.nche.edu/).

Information on Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges is available at www.soc.aascu.org/.